How to enjoy a non crisis, non criminal environment in your home!

This message is for all women planning a family.

First, find a man that is willing to change from a warrior to become a builder of a polite environment in your home! If he is willing to become a polite environment builder in your home, only then you should consider him to be the father of your children.

Note: we have too many warriors in this world! You young mothers-to-be can change this, and enjoy the peace in your home!
